Notarial Pricing

The nature of the issues which need to be addressed by a notary can vary widely in scope.

Every effort will be made to provide you with a quotation for the total cost of undertaking work on your behalf. It may be difficult to estimate how many hours of work will be required to complete a matter bearing in mind the variety of circumstances that may arise. However guidance as the likely cost will always be given. Any estimates will be based on the information available at the time but it is not, of course, possible to foresee every eventuality which may arise.

In straightforward matters, we will normally agree a fee before we undertake any action on your behalf. If at the appointment substantially more work is required than originally anticipated, then we reserve the right to vary the fee from any initial quotation made on the telephone

The present hourly rate is £295 per hour.

The standard minimum fee is £350.

We reserve the right to vary the rate in matters of particular urgency and/or complex or unusual matters or those that require particular expertise.

In addition to our fee, there will also be other costs related to your matter which have to be paid to third parties.

These include legalisation fees paid to the Foreign and Commonwealth office and/ or a relevant foreign Embassy, translators/ interpreters fees, agent's fees, courier's fees and/or special postage charges. You are responsible for all payments made on your behalf. Such costs will only be incurred once we have obtained your prior consent to do so.

Prices and fees quoted are subject to change. Prices quoted are correct as at the time of printing. Please contact the relevant department for up-to-date prices and bespoke quotes.
